

AN AMERICAN TREASURE

Casa Belvedere, 2019 "Partners in Preservation" National Competition Winner honoring historic sites where women made history across "Main Streets America".

In 2010, the Roebling-Stirn Mansion was donated to The Italian Cultural Foundation and renamed "Casa Belvedere" to reflect its breathtaking view of the Verrazzano Bridge and NY Harbor.

After a decade of restoration, the mansion has been resuscitated, beautified and transformed into an Arts and Cultural Pillar, establishing its footprint on NYC's vibrant urban landscape!

In 2019, the mansion's ties to several trailblazer women in history triumphed nationally. Casa Belvedere was the first NYC Landmark to receive a National "Partners in Preservation" award, sponsored by National Trust for Historic Preservation, American Express & National Geographic.

Today this American Treasure is listed on the NYS & National Register of Historic places, and located in a NYS designated Heritage Area. The mansion sits on 2.75 acres of open space atop Grymes Hill, 375' above sea level.
